INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town
as Faithfully as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake
Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

William Ives was a visitor to Santa Rosa Sunday.

Miss Marie Minkie has returned after spending several weeks in Alameda.

James D. Phelan, formerly Mayor of San Francisco, is a guest at the Spreckels ranch.

Eugene Dutil of San Francisco is spending the week with his folks in this place.

Miss Susie Kearney from Oakland is visiting with her sister Miss Emily Kearney of this city.

Louie Kearney was down from Santa Rosa and took in the races at Sonoma on the 4th of July.

Mrs. T. O'Connor and daughter are down from Santa Rosa and are spending the week at the Seven Oaks.

Miss Mary and Cecilia Dowdall left last week to make an extended visit with friends in Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and San Francisco.

A large crowd of people from this side attended the race meet at Sonoma on the Fourth and pronounced it one of the finest meets they ever attended.

The Messrs. C. and E. Burkheim, after spending a very pleasant vacation at one of our summer resorts, returned to San Francisco on Tuesday.

Mr. William Dwyer, Southern Pacific agent at Benicia, and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ryan the fore part of the week.

James Baines and Thomas Baines took in the lightweight championship battle on the Fourth of July between Wolgast, the American, and Moran of England. They pronounced it a great grueling contest.

A large crowd of people spent Sunday and over the Fourth here. Every hotel was crowded. Great interest was taken in the prize dance at the Villa Sunday afternoon and two of Sonoma's society buds who tried hard for the prize were made to look like nothings next to the young San Francisco waltz merchants, who carried off all honors of the day.

Complaints are numerous in regard to many thefts of lumber, laths and other articles in this town of late.

Attorney James M. Oliver of San Francisco with his wife and family are enjoying their vacation at the beautiful home of his father-in-law, Mr. L. L. Lewis, out in the western foothills.

Three steam beer bums blew in to our midst last Wednesday and immediately pitched their camp in the shade of the Southern Pacific Company's cattle corral. They were engaged in the manufacture of wire goods. One of the trio was kept busy during the day rushing the growler to a near-by saloon and the good old stuff was consumed with alarming speed. Our business men oiled up their artillery for a possible hold-up during the night but the trio "beat" the north-bound train out on Thursday night. That Deputy Constable. Where, oh, where was he!

New Mechanics' Lien Law

The mechanics' lien law passed by the last Legislature went into effect on the 1st inst. The new law makes property responsible for any lien which may be had through the failure of a contractor to pay the material men or for the labor. The value of the material and the labor shall govern the amounts of the liens. The new law takes all the responsibility away from the sub-contractors for failure to collect from contractors and places the responsibility of seeing that the bills are paid upon the owner of the property.

The law changes the lien laws of the State materially and goes upon the principle that if the owner receives value in labor and material from workmen or material men he should be made to pay for it and not saddle the loss upon the laborer or the contractor furnishing the material. It protects material men against dishonest contractors and leaves it up to the owner to protect himself through requiring bonds and receipts.

The Farmer's Dream.

A farmer had a dream the other night. He dreamed he had raised four thousand bushels of corn and that he was happy over the fact. Then he dreamed he sold them for fifty cents a bushel and his happiness was greater. But he dreamed he sold it to four thousand different people, a bushel to each one, and that no one had paid him, he was sad. When he awoke it was broad daylight and leaping out of bed he exclaimed to his wife: "Dearie, I have had a solemn warning and I know the meaning of it. I am going right to town and pay the editor that two dollars for the paper."—Ex.

MULGREW'S WILL TO BE CONTESTED

Frank C. Mulgrew, Deceased's
Only Son, Who Was Cut Off
With $10, to be the Contestant.

A contest over the will of John Mulgrew was presumably launched Saturday, when Mrs. Mary Mulgrew, the deceased's surviving wife, filed another will, executed last October, which cut off Frank L. Mulgrew, a San Francisco newspaperman and clubman with ten dollars and leaves the personal property to her. Frank Mulgrew is the deceased's only surviving child. Mrs. Mulgrew is represented by Attorney Joseph P. Berry.

The other will, filed two days after Mr. Mulgrew's death, executed last December, two months after the will filed yesterday, left Frank Mulgrew $10,000 in cash and a half interest in the separate property of the deceased, estimated to the value of $10,000. Allison B. Ware and James C. Sims are the attorneys for Frank L. Mulgrew. A day before Mr. Mulgrew's death a deed was filed in which J. F. Mulgrew bequeathed the Mark West Springs property to his wife. It is understood that a suit will be commenced to set aside the deed to the property.

It will be up to Judge Denny, who presides over the probate department of the county, to determine which will be admitted to probate. A bitter contest is promised.

Horse Thief Gets a Four Year's Sentence.

Sentence of four years imprisonment in San Quentin was the punishment meted out to the man who gave his name as Edward Powers, and later stated it was not by Superior Judge Seawell Saturday morning. The prisoner stole a horse and rig in Petaluma, traded off the horse for another horse and was later captured in western Sonoma. He stated his refusal to give his true name was in order to save his family from disgrace. If that is true there may be some commendation in the motive. The officers incline to the belief he has been in trouble before and that may also have furnished the reason why he desired to be dealt with so quickly and sent to prison.—Santa Rosa Press Democrat.

Little Dora Burmester, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Burmester, prominent residents of El Verano, passed away last Monday after a protracted illness. VINEBURG NEWS AND PERSONALS

"Easy Jim" Tells of the Week's Happenings in His Section

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hyde and son Herschall, spent the Fourth at the old home on the Hyde Tract.

His Honor the Mayor returned from the bay city on last Friday and looks fine after his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Landers of San Francisco, friends of Mr. F. Kennedy, are guests at Vineyard Villa.

Miss Carrie Abernethy of the Hyde Tract is now visiting friends in the city. She will return home in a few weeks.

Miss Ethel Hampton of San Francisco is visiting relatives on the Hyde tract. "All pretty girls know Vineburg."

The hay balers are quite busy in this section at the present time, but the crop is rather light compared with other years.

Vineburg must have a trunk mystery as Jim Small is always seen packing a trunk around with him. Say, Jim, lose it.

We have received no communication from "Ethel Eastlake" this week. Well the Fourth of July only comes once a year and "Ethel" never misses it.

A large number of guests are now registered at Vineyard Villa, the popular summer resort of Vineyard and all speak well of the way they are served. "Good boy, Louie."

Mr. and Mrs. August Figone and children of San Francisco, accompanied by Miss Mary Batto were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Batto at "Batto's Spur" on the glorious Fourth.

Mrs. J. W. Hiser is now on a visit with her relatives in Salt Lake City. She expects to be absent a month and her many friends wish her a pleasant trip and a safe return to her Sonoma Valley home.

INDEPENDENCE DAY IN SONOMA.

THE PARADE AND WINNERS OF PRIZES

The Committee's Award Was Fair and Was Generally Approved

The parade was one of the features of the Fourth of July celebration here and attracted a big throng of people from San Francisco and near-by towns. The parade was led by grand Marshal Carl Dresel and his aids preceded by the Sonoma Valley brass band of twenty-eight pieces. It was an imposing procession and one of the finest parades ever seen in the old town.

Among the beauties of the parade was the turn out of the Moose, the six-horse rig of the Sonoma Valley Furniture Company, Richards Agua Caliente Springs Mineral Water, Kelly's Boys Springs Mineral Water. One of the amusing features of the parade was a rig from the Union Stables drawn by a double team composed of an immense white horse and a diminutive donkey. The Suffragettes led by Jim Weems created much merriment along the line of march and did much toward making the parade a success.

The following prizes were awarded by the committee selected to judge the parade:

First prize for best feature, "N. S. G. W., '49," designed and carried out by Messrs. A. Grosscup, Philip Bill Jr., James Maffei, Otto Gericke, Jr., and others of Sonoma Valley's Native Sons to the manor born. Prize, $10.

Second prize for best feature, "The Suffragettes," designed by J. P. Weems and carried out by Sam Woodworth and other citizens garbed in grotesque female attire. This prize was $7.50.

First prize for best decorated auto, Fetter's Hot Springs, $10.

Second prize for best decorated auto, L. S. Simmons, $7.50.

First prize for the best horse drawn rig, Oak Grove, $10.

Mrs. A. P. Matsen and children are spending a three-week's vacation at "Live Oaks," Dr. Matsen's pretty home on the Napa road.

Here is more trouble for me. A lady friend writes me as follows: Dear Easy! Can you tell me who all those Vineburg tights were rubbing at the other afternoon on Villa Ave? That was only a young lady with a hobble skirt on. I hear two of them had to put porous plasters on their backs next day. Serves them right. Poor tights.

Rosalind G. Rosalind, excuse me, as I do not know the difference between a hobble skirt and a banana special. EASY JIM.

Hon. Frank McGowan's Lecture.

The Congregational Church was crowded to the doors last Sunday to listen to the lecture delivered by Hon. Frank McGowan of San Francisco. The lecture was a most forceful one, the subject being "The Building Up of American Character."

WOMAN'S CLUB MAKES GOOD.

The Celebration Held Here Under its Auspices on the Fourth the Best Ever.

The celebration held in this city on July Fourth, under the auspices of the Woman's Club for the benefit of the New Carnegie Library building to be erected on the easterly side of our historical plaza, was not only a financial success, but it brought together one of the greatest throngs of people ever attracted to the town.

Once more we doff our hat to the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club as a civic organization that does things, as our public fountains, the plaza and many other public improvements carried out by its tireless members the past few years will testify to.

In taking this year's Fourth of July celebration in hand the club women assumed a big public obligation and in bringing it to a successful close they have done themselves proud and have made a start for the projected Carnegie library building that will insure the carrying out of the obligation imposed upon the city by Andrew Carnegie to give it a building that will be a "thing of beauty and a joy forever" for its people and the future generations that are to come. Therefore we say, all hail to the Woman's Club that has instilled into the minds of its people the past few years a spirit of civic pride that will ultimately place it in the front rank of the progressive and beautiful interior cities of California.

A TAG COMMITTEE THAT DID THINGS

Sold Fifteen Hundred Tags on Independence Day and then Quit Because There Were None Left to Sell

Mrs. Woodworth, Chairman of the Tag Committee of the Woman's Club, reports that 1500 tags were disposed on Independence Day. The sales then ceased because there were no more tags left to dispose of.

The committee reports the gross receipts from the sale of the tags as being $150.60. After deducting the cost of the tags and some minor expenses, the net sum raised by this committee for the benefit of the new Carnegie library building is $139.25.

While all the members of the committee did fine work especial mention may fittingly be made of the efforts of Miss Mary Valente, Miss Jones of Oakland, Mrs. Pauline McMullen, Miss Ida Waterman and Mrs. Carrie Burlingame, all of whom sold two hundred or more tags.

During the day the tag committee ladies were greatly assisted in getting around by Messrs. Dick Watt, Chas. Cutter and C. T. Ryland, who placed their automobiles at the services of the Woman's Club during the day, particularly was this so of Mr. Watt, who donated both machine and his services to the cause the entire day.

Financial Report of the Parade Committee

Following is the financial report of the parade committee appointed by Mayor Cummings:

Collections.....	$164.10
Disbursements.....	109.35
Balance on hand.....	$54.75
The expenses of the committee follows: Prizes, $62.50; band, $25.00; miscellaneous, $21.85.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of those experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither narcotics nor poisons, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

DELL DEFEATS RAY BAUGHMAN

The Lads Put up a Great Battle
at Parente's Pavilion on Friday Night of Last Week.

The ten-round boxing bout which was pulled off at Parente's Pavilion
on Friday night of last week between Ray Baughman, the clever fighter of Petaluma, and Harry Dell of San Francisco, attracted several hundred lovers of the game to the ringside. It was a ten-round go and from start to finish was full of thrills. It was without a doubt one of the best exhibitions
of the fist art pulled off anywhere.
It was a give and take contest from the first to the last round. Both youngsters were about evenly matched in weight and punching ability until the ninth and tenth rounds, when Dell came to the fore with stiff body punches and several facers, which certainly did not feel good to the Petaluma lad.

Joe Murphy of El Verano, who referred the fight, at the conclusion of the tenth round gave the decision to Dell, amid much excitement and the vigorous protest
of scores of Baughman's friends, who rose up in anger and voiced their displeasure in no uncertain manner. The referee, however, was game and staid by a decision that was manifestly a decidedly unpopular one.

To the sporting editor of the Index-Tribune, who was present
to referee this fight for his newspaper,
the decision was a fair one,
and throwing sentiment aside and giving the decision not to the most popular lad but to the one that landed the most effective blows in the concluding rounds of the bout, Dell was most certainly entitled to the decision even though it was an unpopular one.

Two preliminaries preceded the principal event. The best of these was the four-round go between Joe Hill of San Francisco and Kid
Schiff of Salt Lake City. The lads put up a game fight in which neither gained an advantage, although both played for knock-blows time and again but which were cleverly avoided by the shifty little boxers. Referee Murphy declared this bout a draw which met with the approval of everyone present at the ringside.

The preliminary scheduled to take place between Chee Wee, the Chinese boxer, and Billy Bannon was not pulled off owing to the fact that the chin was suffering from a sprained wrist and could not show up in the roped arena.
Another fighter, however, was substituted for Chee Wee, and Bannon who was about two feet shorter than his pugnacious antagonist had to keep busy to prevent his head from being knocked off. This scrap was an amusing one and what it lacked in skill it most certainly made up in funny situations.

Taking it all in all the boxing season at Parente's Pavilion has opened most auspiciously and every fight fan at the ringside
unite in saying that for skill, gameness and fight-all-the-time the Baughman-Dell contest was on the dead level and the best ever.

The Good Sisters and Their New Flag

The following card of appreciation from the Sisters of the Presentation of this city speaks for itself:
"The Star Spangled Banner; oh long
may it wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home
of the brave."

Yes "Long may it wave" o'er
the grounds of the Presentation Sisters of Sonoma. Our new flag was thrown to the early morning breeze on the 4th inst. by Miss Nora Mullen, daughter of the more than generous donor of both flag and pole, and cast its benefi-cent shadow now here, now there,
all through the hours of our Nation's anniversary. The sight of it thrilled hearts, aroused patriotism and seemed to make us clasp
the hands of brotherhood with every man, woman and child of
"Our Own United States."

How long we have yearned to see "Old Glory" unfurled over our grounds! How often have we dreamed and planned the accomplishment of our yearning!

But till the flame of patriotism, which burns so brightly in the breast of Mr. M. F. Mullen, illumed the pathway, how vain seemed our desires!

Now they are at length materialized and we can proudly and gratefully thank, on every patriotic occasion, the gentleman whose generosity made "our flag" a reality.
